

This week in Physical Education class disc golf was introduced to the lower grades. Students were put into small groups to practice disc skills. They worked on their grip and toss. All students had an opportunity to throw the discs in the elevated metal basket. Second grade had a natural talent for the game, especially as they posed with the equipment! A big thank you goes to Vibram for donating the equipment to our program.

