

Third Grade Recognizing Different Cultures

Third grade has been learning about the different cultures within our community, including right in our own class. Some students brought in items from home that are a big part of their family's culture. Thanks for sharing!

We also took some time to learn about the American Flag and how it needs to be handled with respect and care.

